Nick and I met at Kent State as students in Manchester Hall. Later, we were roommates when we moved off campus and spent a lot of time together, whether at the gym lifting weights or just carousing. He contacted me while I was living in Nebraska and asked for assistance with his first icon screen for a church in Lorain. I helped him with a couple others before he struck out on his own with Christine. We had a great time sailing on Lake Erie in a neighbors boat, losing parts of the rudder and "struggling" to get back to shore. We were laughing too hard to get serious. Taking winter hikes in James Day Park, with Christine, to cook sausage and beans and just talk. Nick was my best man at my wedding. Then I didn't see him much. I can't understand why this disease would take such a good man. Rusin Van Dyke

To the Family. I am sorry for the lost of your family member and dear friend. I have an encouraging message that I would like to share with you from God's Word the Bible. Like many people we all want to live and enjoy life with the ones we have lost to this aged-old-enemy death. Sadly, though because of health issues, injustice, crimes and old age we have to suffer the pain when ones fall asleep in death. In the Bible at John 5:28,29 Christ Jesus states that all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear his voice and come out. These ones according to Psalm 37:11 will be resurrected right here on the earth. The Bible also gives us comfort and hope at Revelation 21:3-5 which assures us that the day is soon to come in which our Heavenly Father is going to wipe away the tears of sorrow from our eyes forever and death will be no more. I hope that after reading this that it will be of comfort to each of you. To learn more as to why we die and what hope for our loved ones, please feel free to go to the website: jw.org.

KI lit a candle in honor of Nicholas.

it was an honor working with nick when the occasion presented itself. he was always respectful & kind. the strongest impression in my memory was seeing & hearing him laugh out loud (during a telephone conversation on the pointed porch deck above). he'll be missed. may your fond memories comfort you also. peace & love, kL
