No Grandmother could ever have been so happy with her grandchildren. Years ago, after her first bout of illness she had said to me "she wanted to be around long enough, God willing, to see her grandchildren". When I would see her, once a year... I did her taxes... she just lit up every time we talked about them. Steve I am so sorry that you have lost your Mom, you were the best son to her, and gave her all she ever wanted... Grandchildren.

My deepest sympathies to Steve, Janine and children, to Vasso and to all family and friends. I worked with Patti at the IX Center - Patti was a hard worker but more importantly she was a warm, loving and caring person. This is a sad time for everyone who knew and loved Patti. We can find solace in knowing she is in a place where sickness doesn't exit. I will miss you, my friend. Love you.
