Ann "Amy" Mayher

John And Renee' Mayher lit a candle in honor of Ann.

Aunt Amy was our sweetheart. She always treated us to dinner at a nice restaurant any time we went for a visit, which was in recent years, once a year. She had a precious smile and told the girls we were "cutie patooties". She loved to receive family pictures to display in her apartment. She always had little bowls of snacks placed around for visitors and offered "Boston Coolers" to everyone. Whenever it was time to leave, we drove around the cul de sac and she would be at her kitchen window on the third floor and wave at us until we were out of sight as she turned the light on and off. Love always, John and Renee' Mayher Rod, Melissa, Erika, and Erin Lewis
