One of my favorite childhood memories is of visiting Auntie Donna and Uncle Lin at their cottage on Chippewa Lake. It was a magical place filled with sunshine, laughter and fun. Auntie Donna had such a generous, kind spirit. I think of her each time I spread out the pink and white handmade quilt she so lovingly made. Kristen Herbster Chambers

Auntie Donna loved to tell people how I would climb on the dresser as a little girl in her care. She had a loving heart and I cherish my memories of her. susan
