John, I will always remember Mary's messages, cards, and visits at the house over the years. She was a kind spirit that always brought her own special warmth to any gathering. Losing your sibling will certainly create a massive physical void. Your memories of Mary will carry you. Now at peaceful rest, I am certain she will watch over you and those of us who are privileged to call her our friend. My heartfelt sympathies go out to you John. Blessings and peace be with you at this difficult and saddest of times. Mike Senich
