My sweetest memories of Anthony is he was the sweetest little boy❤️ I would get down on my knees and he would put his arms around my neck and we would slow dance. He was the best big brother too he would help me babysit his sister and didn't tell on me , when I accidentally let her fall off the couch. He gave me my dog bella❤️ I know he's watching over his son. And hanging out with family. It's true Only the good die young❤️

To many crazy things we did growing up...That was the best thing about you Anthony You were there..... and it was a lot of fun.And you'll never leave my mind or especially my side.. when you first got started doing tattoos I had no problem of being one of the few that received a tattoo from you on my left shoulder...we never got around to finish it, but isn't that the story of our lives... I'll have to get a little something else for it now to honor you..... a good friend.... RIP Anthony
