HER SON STEVEN WAS MY CLASSMATE AND A FEW YEARS LATER, STEVEN AND I WORK AT PARMA HOSPITAL IN THE 1980,S.I STAYED IN CONTACT WITH ANGIE WITH LETTERS, CARDS, AND PHONE CALLS.SHE WILL ALWAYS BE ALIVE IN OUR HEARTS.GOD LOVES YOU, LYDIA LAMCHA (AGE 58) AND RAYMOND LAMCHA (FATHER) AGE 87.

Angie was my Godmother and much more to me. We talked often about anything and everything. I cherished every call, card and wonderful gifts she had taken the time to find for me. Nouna was the kindest. Sweetest person that anyone could have had the pleasure of knowing. I feel saddened that she is no longer on earth but now she is with my Godfather John, her son Stephen and all those who have passed before her. She is with God now and without any pain or worries. She always told me in every phone call that she had been blessed with a good life and if she passed tomorrow it would be okay. I loved her dearly.

Angeline Kornelakis was a continual source of comfort to her family and has a heart for helping anyone in need. After my firstborn son came into the world, she came and stayed for three weeks. She made dinner each night and even ironed my shirts! She used to say that in the biblical story of Mary and Martha, Martha didn't get her due. After all, who was going to do the cooking, she said. I will not forget her many kindnesses to me. I will try to pay them forward. Mark Oster
