My sympathy goes out to the Sima family. I worked with John for a very long time at TRW. He was always smiling, kind, and fun to be around. I have so many fond memories of him. May he rest in peace. Cindy Krause

I have so many memories of my Ohio Dad. The Sima family has been in my life a long time. They have been there for so many of my big moments in life. From funerals to parties to weddings. I will share the one that will forever be with me. I married my partner of 12 years 7 years ago. My dad had already passed, something I so missed was him being at my wedding. We were married in NH. Of course John, Pat and Terrie were there. John had the most heartfelt talk with me before my mom walked me down the aisle. He filled a void in my heart by doing so making me feel like my dad was right there. He knew how much I missed him. He was a great man and a gentle man. He always had a smile on his face except when I gave him driving directions. I will miss him tremendously. May God be with him, Pat and T. I love you all too no end. Memory EternalMagooski
