Hey grandma, its Danielle, I just want you to know how much I love you and how much I miss you. Its taken everything in me not to call your house. I don't know where to go, where to turn, this seems like its a bad dream. It has been hard without you here. I miss being able to call you and talk to you for hours. I miss you saying how much you love me and how much you miss me and couldn't wait to see me and my kids. Although you got to meet them for a brief time, I'll be sharing the memories we had and keep them alive. I hope you know how much you're missed. I wish I could have one more day with you. I love you. Until we meet again. ❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️

I'm so sorry to hear about the passing of Mrs Endo . I knew you through your daughters Diane and Loretta who spent time at our house with our daughter Jessica and through Blessed Sacrament school where I worked with you for a short time many years ago as a school crossing guard. Although my time with Aunt Loretta has waned over the years, I have many memories of her growing up. The one thing that stands out the most is her smile. Aunt Loretta had a smile and laugh that lit up her whole face and reached to the crinkle of her eyes! When I remember her, it is always of her smiling! Tell Gramma Bodi "Hi!", Aunt Loretta. And be sure to laugh at one of her jokes!

Loretta was a lifelong friend of my mom, Carol and friend of our family for more than 60 years. She was my mom's maid of honor in 1959. She was always so funny, smart and quick witted. Having her precious personality around us, especially in the most difficult times of life, like when we experienced the loss of our dad and also the loss of our mom, she had a special, unique way of easing the pain because she was such an open, loving person. Also, I remember that if I happened to be mad or in a bad mood, that feeling would dissipate if she was around because she would always say something that would make me laugh. She was a beautiful person, inside and out. We loved her very much. We are so sorry for your family's loss. We will keep you all in our prayers. The Goodman family

She was my neighborhood friend when we both lived by the car barn off State Rd. Spent a lot of bowling together with her sister-law and friends. She stood up in my wedding in 1960. last saw her on my 50th anniversary. she recently tried to call me. I sent her a birthday card which I hoped she received before her passing. Good friend. We had many fun times. Rest in peace Lori. Sorry for loss. Virginia M Schafer I feel bad that I couldn't attend. I left for Florida on Saturday Nov 13.
