Emily Miklis

OCT 25, 1923 - APR 24, 2024

Emily Miklis (nee Condopoulos), age 100, passed away at her home on April 24, 2024.

Beloved wife of Harry Miklis (deceased) and mother to daughter, Ellen Karavolos, (deceased).

She is survived by her son-in-law, Michael Karavolos, and two grandsons, Nicholas and Alex

Karavolos and her sister, Toni Lesser (David), and was preceded in death by her sister, Effie

Chapman (Kent). She was the aunt to many nieces and nephews.

She was born on October 25, 1923, to Gregory and Persephone Condopoulos (both deceased) in Cleveland, Ohio. She was married to Harry Miklis on September 18, 1960. Her daughter Ellen was born on October 3, 1962. She initially worked as a controller at Leece-Neville for 16 years. She then was a Professor at Cuyahoga Community College, serving on all three campuses. She held a doctorate in Business Administration from Kent

State University.

Dominic Micali posted:

I will never forget Aunt Emily picking up her sister Grandma Effie and heading to a December Cavs game...in a snow storm! Both ladies were well into their late 70s and early 80s, but the snow would not stop Aunt Em firing up that Buick for a trip downtown to see her beloved Cavaliers. I will forever cherish the moments watching Cleveland sports with Aunt Em and Grandma Effie.
