Minas was awesome, I had the pleasure of being one of his counselors at Camp Happiness Summer Camp for a few years. He was my favorite and he was like my little shadow. We called him Micheal Pepperoni as a nick name cause he would all my Pepperoni slices of my pizza On the last day of Camp he wouldn't leave until he found me to say good bye, I remember him running down the ramp and flying tackling me to give me hugs and kisses. Made me cry like a little baby. Always thought of him all these years and really wish we could have kept in touch. This world was definitely a better place with Minas in it he will be surly missed. Blessed repose and eternal memories Minas. May God have you in the palms of his hands an hour before the devil even knows you are in heaven. God bless you and your family.
