She was gracious and generous and opened her heart and shared her home, table and garden with all. She enjoyed the sunshine, water, mini adventures such as visiting her family in Buffalo and Florida, parks, gardens, concerts, church festivals and shopping. Our family visits as well as her baking and flowers brought joy that could only be described as magical. We will always be grateful and admire mom's faith, courage, and perseverance in light of all her challenges. Love of her faith, church community and family continues to carry through to all of us.
