“ Hey Dawn, I can't believe it's going on three years that you've been gone why is you see from above with Mom and Tony I don't know what's going on with why I don't know who she's protecting but I wish you would say something I wish there was a way you can get through to her I'm sorry I had to put her through what she's going through but Dawn I had no choice I'm doing everything I'm supposed to I know we really didn't see eye-to-eye but when it came to our kids we both knew who was always there and I never let you down before I don't want her to be another kid I see on the news and I don't want her to be like 19 Action News everywhere I want to keep her safe and in a stable home so please Dawn mom and Tony hair me and watch and help me bring our why back home

Your babay sister - September 04, 2018 at 09:38 PM

“ Hey, I know it's been a long time and I miss you all so much well I'm doing what you wanted and I'm raising Keri as my own daughter, but there is something going on with her she's scared about someone or something she has bruises on her, she's trying to tell me she's got from sleeping Dawn I don't believe it I hope you guide me in the right direction Keri knows I'm always going to be here for her and I'm never going anywhere I love that little girl unconditionally to the Moon and back I don't know what's happening I just wish she open up more there's a lot going on she's giving me little hints here and there for me to put together damn she's just like you it's so funny, you would be so proud of her Dawn she is so funny but she misses you so much she's been making excuses for I want to say the past few months not to go with her dad I don't understand why but there's really nothing I can do about it I need you to send me some kind of sign the help me understand this is breaking my heart I don't like to see my baby hurt none of them. God I miss you guys so much but I know you guys are always around and you're watching over all of us I know I'm not perfect and like always I don't try to be but I know when it comes to my babies they always come first to me and I always try to do the best for all of them as for your daughter I will always be there by her side. Dawn please find a way to help her understand that it's okay to let me know what's going on if she's getting hurt in any kind of way and thatshe's NOT going to go anywhere and that she will always be here with me... Mom, Tony and Dawn...
I love you so much and I miss you,
you all left us too soon

“ This is sooooo hard, It is so hard to believe that it's almost been 7 months come Friday that you have left us all... Not a day goes by that I don't think about you and Tony I miss you both, especially you yelling at me from across the street calling me names I just wish we had more time you always had to be so damn hard headed and be by yourself, you just never realized just how much you was LOVED by all of your family.... I know that we had hard times and really didn't get along but that is one thing but when something would happen to one we all would be there for one another... I'm tring to be strong for everyone but this is so hard when you lose a family member again, I really never got the chance to get over losing Tony, now your gone and my life feels incomplete my oldest brother Anthony and my only sister are gone ripped from our lives.... as i sit here writing you this I'm starting to slowly break down just to look at your daughter Keri...girl shes one of a kind I love her to DEATH and you know she will always be in good hands with me..... she misses you so much.... you are truly missed and LOVED and always will be forever in our hearts

Nancy - March 04, 2016 at 08:24 PM

“ It's so hard to believe it's been over a month already. I miss you every single day. I think of your laugh, you laughed so much.. your crazy self wanting to kick someone's ass, the love you had for my kids like they were your own. They will never forget you. I wait for a call or a text. I wish you had a problem with your computer I would drop everything to come work on that with you right now. We've spent years and years laughing together, crying together, even working at the same job together. I don't have you and that breaks my heart, more than anyone will ever know, but I have memories of my sister, my friend, and no one will ever take those from me. I seriously took you for granted, I thought you would be by my side forever. I know you're still here, just in a different way now. I love you.
