Comments

“ please accept my sincere condolences on the passing of Mrs konorosky. She was a regular part of my life growing up, as was her husband Joe. He and my father, richard kelly sr., had worked together somewhere long ago, and as I grew up in Chardon , we would visit Joe and Helen frequently. Over the years, we lost contact, and my father died in 1993 and mother passed on 1 year ago this coming October 6th. My parents had moved to first Arizona and then California in 1972, and had lost contact with Joe and Helen, so I have no idea how their lives had gone to this point, but in seeing this obituary in the Plain Dealer, i recognize Mrs. Konorosky easily. You all are lifted in my prayer this day for the peace of Jesus Christ to be resting on all of you by His Holy Spirit through this toug passage of life. God Bless all of you. This brings more closure to a part of my life now as well. Always had fun as a kid with our visits.
