“ This is not goodbye but until we meet again. She has taught all of us our life begins in heaven, we have a short time on this earth compared to eternity. I am better for having her in my life. She is at peace and where she has always longed for to be closer to God. I love you gram, you will never be forgotten. Your best friend.

“ Missing our mom so much this morning. Remembering her smile, her hugs and what a wonderful cook she was. Her fried chicken and pot roast were the best!

“ It has been a blessing in just a few short days to see the love and respect people shared for our mother. Her faith in God and passion to share his word has been her goal in life and even now I believe. In our longest days and our most trying moments we have all had comfort in her "Faith". Mom, thank you.....I could never get thru my days without the word of God you shared with me. Love you, Vic

“ First of all, I want to thank you from my heart for sharing your mom with me! She was an inspiration to me, a dear friend and someone I found in one of my darkest times here on earth! I was in a very bad and dark place when I went to a class called Cleansing Stream at CTK! The class was taught by an elder (Phil Nagy) and also in the class was another woman from another church. Roberta was THE first of the three in the class that stood up and said hi! I listened to her witness about how wonderful Christ is, and always will be! She made me feel comfortable there, even though I was frightened and so unsure about sharing any of my pain! She included me in all aspects w/no pressure in sharing! She insisted I share a room she and the other woman, instead of staying alone. We were together when I felt God speak to me, and tell me I was truly special and together we celebrated!

She introduced me to some of her family, and I can see her in all of them!

I have called her many times since, and could always rely on her advice, listen as she talked about her abundant love for her kids, grandkids and family! Those conversations were always filled with how much she loved her family!

I will miss her smile and talk of our Savior, but I know from the bottom of my heart that I will see her again when I also am called home to be with Him!

I love you Roberta!

“ First of all, I'd like to thank the family for sharing Roberta with the rest of the world! She was a dear friend of mine, and I will miss her very much!

I first met Roberta in one of the darkest and most painful days of my life! I went to a class at Christ the King called Cleansing Streams and Roberta was the first of the three people there that I met! I was afraid and not willing to share my pain in the beginning, and she talked to me and made me feel comfortable! I listened to her talk about her family, and the love and pride she felt for all of you! She included me in all of the conversations so as I didn't feel like an outsider. (She was good at doing that, no matter who it was!) We went to the retreat, and she insisted that I share the room that she and the other lady were sharing. She refused to let me get a room and be all alone! She was there when God revealed His love, acceptance and told me I was enough for Him! We celebrated His words together! I felt at peace and I felt a bonding friendship!

Over the years, I called her and spoke many times about troubles, family and most of all Christ! She was truly a bright spot in my life! She ALWAYS had time for others, no matter what she was doing!

I briefly attended Bethel (about a year) and there she was! A friendly face to see, sit with and feel at peace with! She made friends with my son, and he loved to tease her, to pray with her or for her!

I will miss my friend Roberta with all my heart, but I KNOW that I will see her again when I am called home to Christ, and I will again be able to smile, laugh and enjoy her company thru eternity!

I love you Roberta!
